

Does your K-5 public school student have trouble reading?

The New Worlds Reading Scholarship Accounts can help!

Who is eligible?

1

Florida K-5 public or charter school students

&

2

Not yet reading on grade level*

*Demonstrated on Progress Monitoring reports or by a score below a level 3 on the English Language Arts (ELA) test in the previous year.

Funding priority will be given to English Language Learners who are enrolled in a program or receive services specifically designed to meet their instructional needs.

How to apply?

For more information, visit
StepUpForStudents.org/Reading

✉ Reading@StepUpForStudents.org

☎ (877) 735-7837

📱 @StepUp4Students

What is available?

$500 scholarship to be used toward:

- Part-time tutoring
- Summer and after-school literacy programs
- Instructional materials (including books, desktop/laptop computers and tablets)
- Curriculum related to reading or literacy

Scan the QR code to learn more about the New Worlds Reading Scholarship Accounts and to see if your student qualifies.